

Jewell Jackson

Jewell Jackson holds an Associate Degree in Early Childhood Education and Development and has completed continued education at the University of Central Oklahoma with a focus on children with special needs. She also holds a Certificate of Mastery and a Director's Certificate from Rose State College.

She is the owner and operator of Jump for Joy Home Child Care, where she is dedicated to providing quality care and early learning experiences for children and families.

Jewell is a long-standing member of Greater Mount Olive Baptist Church in Oklahoma City, where she has faithfully served in Prison Ministry for 15 years and in the GMO Food Ministry. She is actively involved in church evangelism and community outreach and has served as a Children's Ministry Leader and Teacher for over 20 years. Her additional service includes participation in the Prayer Ministry and volunteering at Martin Luther King Elementary School.

She is a member of the Oklahoma City Family Child Care Association and has hosted the Annual Angel Tree Program for the past 10 years, supporting children of incarcerated parents.

Jewell has been married for 25 years and is the proud mother of four children, grandmother to seven grandchildren, and great-grandmother to six great-grandchildren.